

Seated Fest in Baltimore this month!

Brought to you by the Liberty Seated Collectors Club

- Passionate about Liberty Seated coinage?
- Are you just interested in learning a little more about it?
- Want to see 20 cases of amazing and rare coins?
- Want to see collector-grade coins of all seven Liberty Seated series – half dimes through Trade dollars?
- Want to meet the experts in your favorite series?
- Want to meet collectors of similar interests who are enthusiastic to share their experiences?

Collectors of all experience levels, you need to come to...

Highlights include:

- Marquee sets of Liberty Seated half dimes, dimes, and quarters
- The unique 1870-S Half Dime!
- Collector-grade coins of all series, half dimes through Trade dollars
- Four 90-minute educational programs
- Errors, and much more!

Open to all – LSCC members and non-members – collectors of all ages, experience, and interests!

In addition, four 90-minute educational sessions over two days are not to be missed, scheduled to allow participants plenty of time to explore the bourse floor. Thursday Feb. 28 and Friday March 1.

Educational Program

Thursday February 28, 9:00 – 10:30 a.m.

Introduction to Liberty Seated coinage, designers, subtypes, Liberty Seated artistry, collecting Liberty Seated coins

Thursday February 28, 3:00 – 4:30 p.m.

Series: Liberty Seated half dimes, dimes, and quarters. Key dates, major varieties, collecting difficulty

Friday March 1, 9:00 – 10:45 a.m.

Series: Double dimes (twenty cent pieces), Trade dollars. Variety attribution, References for Liberty Seated coinage.

Friday March 1, 3:00 – 4:30 p.m.

Series: Liberty Seated half dollars, Liberty Seated dollars. The Andrew Jackson-Sevier Flying Eagle Dollar

Unique 1870-S Half Dime, will be at Seated Fest!

Collections of Half Dimes to Trade Dollars

Register free for educational program on the website:
www.lscweb.org/registration.html